

HEATH TECNA

Job Posting

Title: Director of Information Systems
Reports To: VP of Systems & Support
Application Deadline: Until Filled
Posting: Internal/External

Responsibilities: Leads the development and management of the company's information systems to provide efficient support for current business operations.

- Leads the process of developing and implementing IS systems for maximum efficiency and effectiveness.
- Takes an active role supporting and driving 6S and Lean principles; ensures that all information systems support and are developed around the company's Lean initiatives.
- Responsible for implementing and maintaining the companies ERP system to current business standards.
- Defines future requirements and coordinates planning for installing system improvements on the basis of technology developments.
- Responsible for department budget, staff management and hiring, training, and supervision.
- Takes action to ensure the reliability, efficiency, and confidentiality of information system.
- Develops system with provision for continuity of operations during any disaster recovery or other emergency situations in accordance with company and group policies.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree or MBA in computer science preferred,.
- Ten or more years of experience managing an IS department, preferably in a manufacturing environment.
- Demonstrated analytic and management skills.
- Proficiency in latest technology for IS systems and management.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office and PowerPoint

Equal Opportunity Employer